

When Is It Time To Move?

Weinberg Campus to host seminar on health, safety and planning for the future.

October 21, 2016 (Amherst, New York)—Weinberg Campus invites seniors ages 65 plus and their families or caregivers to attend a seminar about aging safely at home, learn when it's time to seek additional support and get tips for talking with friends and loved ones about their healthcare needs. The seminar will be presented by Charles Yates, M.D., board certified in Family Medicine and Palliative Care Medicine and Chief Medical Officer, Fallon Health Weinberg.

The seminar will be held on Thursday, October 27, 2016 from 4-5:30 p.m. Light refreshments will be served.

RSVP to (716) 512-0925 or rsvp@weinbergcampus.org Oct. 25. The event is free and open to the public.

About Weinberg Campus

Weinberg Campus is a residential community focused on providing an innovative approach to senior living, enabling seniors to enjoy a healthy, engaged lifestyle. As a non-profit organization serving all faiths, Weinberg is passionate about creating comfortable, homey environments with assistance to individuals as their needs change.

Weinberg Campus is the only rental community in the area with a continuum of care and no upfront entrance fee. A variety of senior living options include: senior apartments, assisted living, memory care, skilled nursing care, homecare and rehabilitation.

Our trained, caring staff is always on hand to assist the people we serve. For more information or to schedule a personalized visit, call (716) 639-3311, ext. 2469.

###